

TONI&GUY's influencer program reaches 11.8m with Rinck Advertising

@soyjimeagular

Situation

Needed efficient management processes for influencer campaigns

TONI&GUY, the multi-award-winning hairdressing salon, loves to stay on the cutting edge. For 55+ years, this iconic British brand has provided clients with expert-level hair styling products. TONI&GUY wanted to create an influencer campaign that would increase brand and product awareness and build equity in Mexico. It teamed up with the full-service global agency, Rinck Advertising, to build an influencer program.

The team at Rinck previously juggled many platforms for its clients' influencer campaigns — including recruiting, tracking, and payment tools. But no platform could do it all. Data collection took too much of the team's time and reduced efficiency. Rinck needed an all-in-one platform to launch an influencer campaign for its client, TONI&GUY. The team also needed detailed campaign performance data — critical for client reporting.

TONI&GUY's marketing goals targeted stylish, bold, 24- to 35-year-old women in Mexico who shop at Walmart. Its campaign objectives were to:

- Drive awareness in Mexico about the TONI&GUY brand and its products using mega-, macro-, and micro-level key opinion leaders
- Educate and engage consumers on using TONI&GUY products to achieve bold styles via influencer-generated tutorials and social content
- Communicate TONI&GUY's #BOLD& campaign through targeted messaging from key opinion leaders on blogs and vlogs
- Show consumers how TONI&GUY's products help them stay ahead of hair trends and reflect their bold personality

A one-stop-shop for influencer campaign life cycles

TONI&GUY broke new ground using the impact.com / creator platform. First, the Rinck team streamlined influencer recruitment and payment setups, gaining more time and resources to brief influencers about the quality necessary for campaign content.

Next, Rinck hired eight key opinion leaders from thousands of potential candidates. These top Mexican lifestyle and beauty influencers created 10 styles and online tutorials featuring TONI&GUY's hair styling products. The influencers included two mega-level and six macro- and micro-level key opinion leaders.

The Rinck team amplified influencer-generated content through paid promotion on the influencers' and TONI&GUY's social channels.
